Welcome to rajdoot

Rajdoot in Cirencester has been serving food since 1982. The West have shown an increase in interest in Indian cuisine as well as the Indian sub-continent itself during the past few years, so higher standards and as a greater variety of Indian cuisine are demanded. Here at the Rajdoot we incorporate all these changes. We have selected and developed our menu for the wide range of our customers palates.

We have introduced a good selection of vegetarian dishes and have also included giving you more choice and a mouth watering taste. Try these dishes as an accompaniment to your meals or as a main course and you will not be dissatisfied.

We pride ourselves in the fact that we use no preservatives in our food. We only use the freshest and best ingredients to make your meal a memorable one.

If there is a particular dish you like which is not listed in our menu, please ask a staff member; our chef would be happy to prepare it for you if time permits.
